

Have a Voice

With the National Elections just over 1 month away, how familiar are you with the Candidates and their position on the various issues, especially the Policy issues - many of which are HR related?

We've linked SHRM's Get Out the Vote information to our web site to help you understand the issues so you are better prepared and informed to vote on 11/6. "HR issues dominate the policy agenda. Making sure that your voice is heard is imperative to ensuring Congress enacts laws that make sense and help organizations better manage themselves." Click here for more information:
